BRUCE HASKELL

We at Seaside High School dedicate the 1982-83 Seabreeze to Mr. Bruce Haskell, who contributed so much of his time and effort for the betterment of our school district.

Numerous accomplishments can be credited to his name with education related activities heading the list. He served on our school board from 1968 to 1982. He provided leadership as Chairman of the Board in 1968-69, 1969-70, and 1971-78. His involvement with the school board continued on to the 1982 school year.

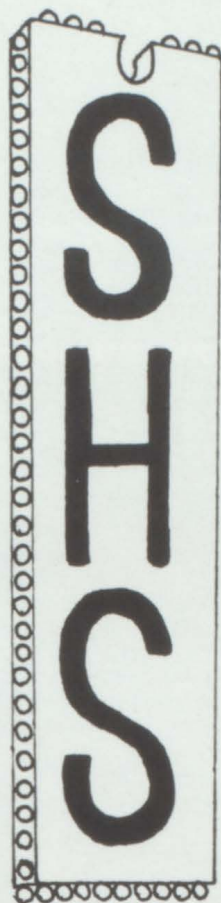

He played a major role in the planning and construction of Seaside Heights Elementary School and the development of the bus garage.

He was perhaps best known for his intense support of activity programs. Projects included a fence for baseball, bleachers, a back stop, and a scoreboard, all presently in use at Broadway Field, as well as the construction of an all-weather rubberized track here at the high school.

His list of achievements goes on and on, leaving little room to question his leadership abilities. It is evident that this man took great care in whatever he did.

The role Bruce Haskell played was one of benevolence, characterized by kindness and concern for others. It is these star qualities that we consider admirable, and in appreciation base our yearbook theme on a 'play.' In this play, we are the understudies striving to acquire these very same characteristics that made this man so commendable.

SEABREEZE THEATRE

TAKE STURDEVANT

"Quiet on the set!"

Instructions given, lights ready, props in place, and the stage is set, and so the 1982-1983 school year was off to another year-long production.

The debut for the new academic year saw many new faces and improvements within the curriculum and physical structure. The Seaside High School students had prepared themselves during the summer months for these changes.

Within these pages of the Seabreeze Theatre are reflections of the final production of the 1982-83 school year. Captured are those rehearsal moments: studying for classes, costume changes; keeping up with the latest styles and fads, the opening number; academic courses and disciplines, and the debut celebration; activities and projects.

So much can be said about this school and this production year, but let us allow the pictures to portray our story, our tragedies and comedies ... OUR YEAR. The spotlight is on YOU, the S.H.S. family.

Co-Starring:
THE CITIZENS of SEASIDE

JOG-A-THON '82

THE SCENE OF ACTION

The scene was the track at Seaside High School, where approximately 350 students ran laps. The students raised an estimated $3,000 in pledges, which will be used for college scholarships. to be awarded to selected seniors. The remaining money will go into class treasuries. Critics commend the students of Seaside for a fund raising performance well done.

Some of the Jog-a-thon participants on the following page were: Mr. Chris Gorchels, Mr. Jon Ogren, Steve Benson, Paula Thompson, Coach Lyons, Kerstin Sadilek, Joanne Eddy, Mr. Ed Rippet, Mr. Harold Riggan, Shannon Little, Shelley Stewart, Mimi Perkins, Kristin Anderson, Tim Barnes, Jamie Lerma, Jaquie Phalen, Mike West, Cari Nyswonger, Leanne Reid, Jeff Moon, as well as many other students who participated.

1 Efforts pay-off for the sophomores.

Homecoming "82" deserves an Oscar for the superb performance given by S.H.S. cast members and crew. With the humdrum of academic learning, students participated in a week long slate of costumes, dances, hall decorating, and action-packed activities. Countless hours of voluntary work on various projects helped each class reach that ultimate goal of "class unity".

Homecoming festivities continued in the true tradition of a spirited Seagull with the Bonfire, Homecoming Dance, and Coronation, all highly successful. At weeks end, competition ceased, giving the seniors the spotlight for winning the Spirit Cup.

This year's homecoming court included Teija Paananen, Jodie Brady, Stephanie Morris, Jeanne Taylor, and Joanne Eddy, who was crowned Homecoming Queen at Friday night's game with Clatskanie. The script ended with an evening of dance at the high school cafeteria.

LEADING ROLES AS . . .

Being bestowed with the honor of student body president is very important. I undertook this task with great anticipation, knowing that with the help from my peers and advisors, this year would be highly successful. I feel that it all really was! I will always remember my days at S.H.S. and will continue to use the leadership qualities that I have learned to assist me later in my life.

Wim Ryan

My job as the 1982-83 president of the Lettermans Club was to hold meetings and provide leadership with the help and a guiding hand from the advisor, Mr. Buzzell. The club is a service organization in school as well as out in our community. We make and sell buttons for football and basketball games. We also sell school calendars that help boost seagull spirit!!

Stacy Allen

Thespians is a club centered around theater. As a Thespian Club we are in charge of two dances and the drama banquet at the end of our performance season. We try to see theater productions that are performed by other schools and by professionals. By doing this we get a broad view of the theater.

Chris Osborne

As Senior Class president my main duties were to have money making projects and to promote school spirit by getting the Senior class involved in all activities. I feel that we were very successful, especially during homecoming week.

Eric Hartman

SENIOR LEADERS

SENIOR LEADERS

Centurions Club is a service organization. We have many activities that we are involved in with the community as well as in the school. Mr. Haller, the club advisor, hosts one of the highlights of the year, the hamburger feed which is held at his house.

Foreign Language club is a organization for students who are enrolled in foreign languages. We have activities throughout the school year to raise money for our christmas party and our Mardigras. Mrs. Kaisa Swenddal-White is our advisor.

Jeanne Taylor

As student director of the pep band, I lead the band at all pep assemblies. We play at concerts throughout the year. All of the band members sold candy bars, cheese, and sausage to help pay for the big trip to Victoria B.C. Thank-You to everyone who helped support us. It helped out a lot!!!

Sally Whitlock

National Honor Society is an organization for students who have received a 3.45 grade point average throughout high school and also have a creditable record in service, and leadership in school activities. These students are selected by the faculty. Honor society's main functions are to promote leadership and academic excellence as well as selling candy canes for a fund raiser for scholarships that are given out at the end of the year. Miss Lewis is the club advisor.

Matt Elmes

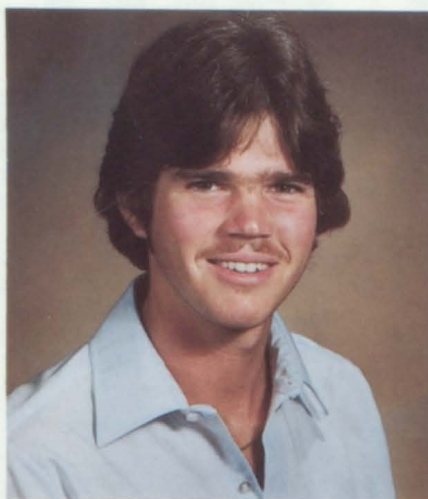

The Ski Club was reorganized in 1982 by Mr. Ogren and myself. The hardest part of are job was finding an organzia-tion that handles a ski club. We contacted the Explorer Scouts and arranged a meeting for students interested in skiing. Then the paper work was taken care of, that includ-ed, insurance and registration. I feel that this year was successful.

SENIORS SET THE STAGE FOR WELCOMING FRESHMEN CAST

In the opening number of the S.H.S. school year, a week was set aside strictly for the freshmen cast debut. The "Senior Superstars" set the stage and gave them a warm welcome, and much applause for their involvement in orientation activities.

ACT II FALL

1. Susie Deranger, Jenni Green, Holly Trucke, and Teri Carlson. 2. Paula Bergeson and Carolyn Maltman. 3. Thad Hensleigh. 4. Brad Eller. 5. Laura Taylor.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

CROSS COUNTRY PLAYS THE PART

This years "82" cross country season proved to be highly successful. With the help and encouragement from Mr. Gilbertson and Mr. Branson, the team improved greatly. One of the things that helped was the unity, willingness to work and support from the school, parents and community.

This Cross Country season was a great one for the boys and girls. There was a lot of dedication and willingness to work hard no matter what the weather was like. We couldn't of got where we did, if we didn't have the help of Mr. Gilbertson and Mr. Branson. They were always there, encouraging us to keep going even if we were tired. Everyone was improving and striving to win. What I liked about that was no one ever gave up. Being in Cross Country for four years, this one was the most exciting because of all the new experiences and being able to see people improve. I hope everyone that participated this year, will stay with it for the rest of their high school years.

Jodie Brady

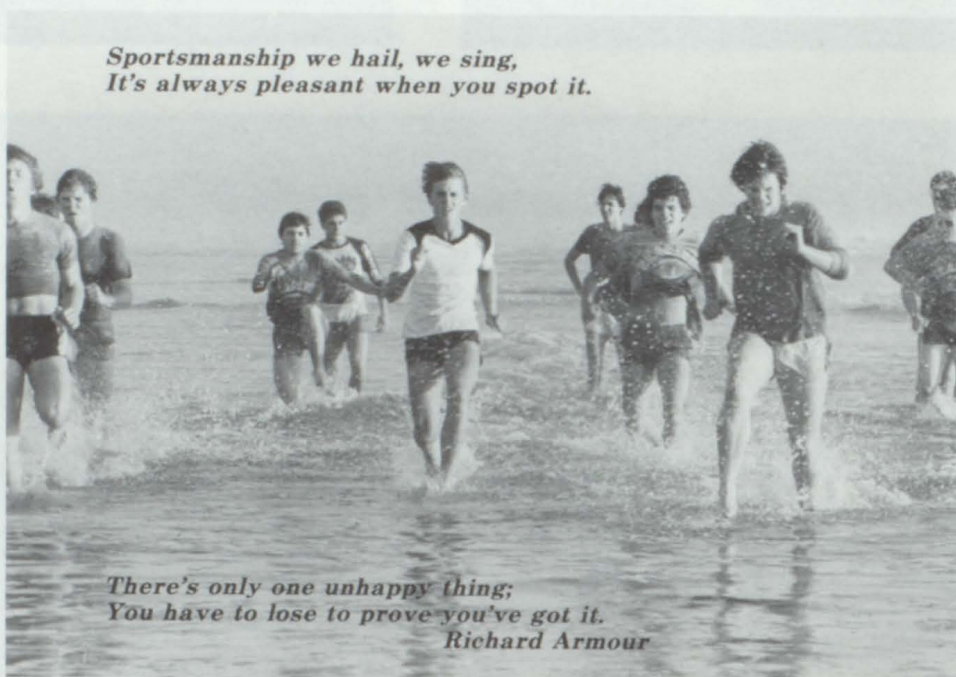

Each player and his parents were introduced before the home Tillamook game. Pictured above are Walter, Brad and Sharon Olson; Danny and Marc Stoneman; Tommy, Prudy and Jimmy Adams; Beverly, Shawn and Gene Gilbertson; Harvey, Eric and Mary Hartman; and Sandy, Chad and Bill Bergerson.

Statistics are like a bikini. What they reveal is suggestive, but what they conceal is vital.

Aaron Levenstein

This years stat girls were Julie Pesonen, Cindy Courtwright, Cindy Kulland, and Kristen Anderson.

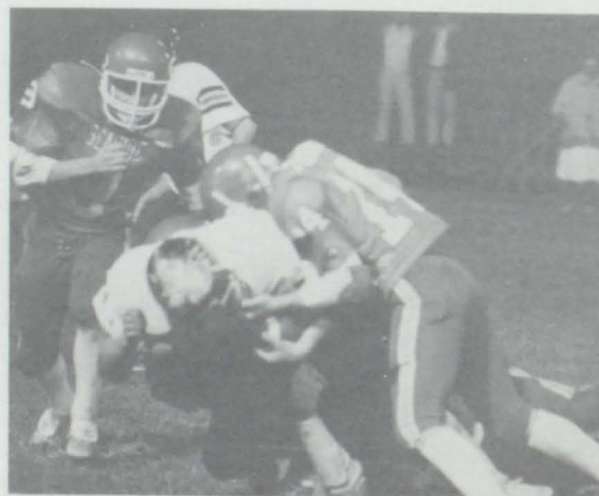

Sportsmanship we hail, we sing,
It's always pleasant when you spot it.

There's only one unhappy thing;
You have to lose to prove you've got it.
Richard Armour

The football players started practicing during the summer. They had a couple of practices at the beach.

Eric Hartman goes for another first down, as Ken Biamont blocks.

Ronnie Stockenberg tackles a Scapoose running back as Brad Olson comes in to assist.

Fred Ostermeier, Eric Hartman, Jeff Stoller, Rick Derby and Tim Biamont (not seen) did the "Funky Chicken" cheer at a pep assembly.

Mark Brooks helps injured teammate, Brad Eller.

Football today is far too much of a sport for those of us who can play it well; the rest of us, and too many of our children, get our exercise from climbing the seats in the stadiums, or from walking across the room to turn on our television sets. And this is true for one sport after another, all across the board.

ENCORE

SPIRIT, SPIRIT, SPIRIT, that's what this years rally squad tried to promote.

New to the season are advisors Mrs. Kris King and Miss Joyce Muldoon. Their hard work and efforts paid off in the best season yet.

The year began early for the girls, as they started practices in the summer. The squad worked hard in trying to promote school spirit by adding new and exciting skits to the pep assemblies and getting the teachers involved as well as the students.

The squad also introduced some new cheers, of these, "Wind It Up" seemed to be the most accepted and enjoyed. Besides their cheering duties the girls sold buttons, ribbons, made posters, and took rooter bus sign-ups.

As the season came to a close the squad once again taught others the cheers and songs for the girls trying out for the new basketball season.

It was an enjoyable year for all.

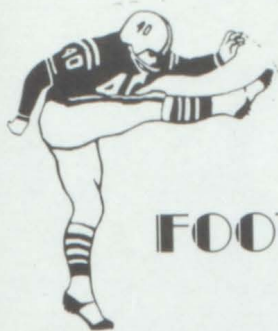

ENCORE

The combined efforts of this seasons J.V. and Frosh Rally paid-off.

The girls were chosen several months before the football season started, so they could spend the summer perfecting their cheers.

After three months of practice the girls were told that there wouldn't be a Frosh football team. So the Frosh and J.V. squads united to help promote enthusiasm and support for the J.V. football team. Jennifer Myers, Shelley Stewart, Debbi Richards, Theresa Royston, and Jean Ferron.

SPOTLIGHT ON:

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Varsity Volleyball girls stole the spotlight this year with a highly successful season. "A complete turnaround from previous years." is how coach Ginny Hamer told the story. What made their "set" so outstanding? ... Gym shoes, knee pads, and shouts of "bump, set, spike!" The girls played their individual roles consistently, uniting together to stage numerous encore performances. Not to allow their efforts to go unheeded, they were rewarded with two trophies this season. They placed first in the Seaside Invitational Tourney and brought home a 2nd place trophy from the Neah-Kah-Nie Tournament. The girls made the league play-offs with 18 wins, 8 losses overall, (10 wins, 4 losses league.)

SEASIDE HIGH SCHOOL DRAMA DEPT. PRESENTS DAISY MAYME

The Seaside High School Fall Play for 82-83 was DAISY MAYME, written by George Kelly. It was said by Mr. Odin that DAISY MAYME was one of the most difficult plays to direct, but he believes the experience has been valuable in helping the students prepare for the Winter Musical. With time and experience, the potential of each cast member and their individual talents will surely shine through.

AWARD WINNING COSTUMES

BY MODEL U.N. STUDENTS

Teija Paananen, delegate to Finland and Chris Osborne, ambassador to Paraguay, did an outstanding job of representing their countries' native costumes. Paananen took first place and Osborne second in the overall competition. At the annual Model United Nations, Finland, Paraguay, and Thailand were represented by Seaside High School this year. Although it was our first year participating at M.U.N. all delegates performed remarkably well. Suzi Price was elected state secretary for next years' General Assembly. Delegates from Seaside include: Shelley Stewart, Lorri Dane and Tim Barnes from the country of Thailand. Chris Osborne, John Wickman, Jeff Cave and Jeanine Purcell from the country of Paraguay. Nancy Holt, Teija Paananen, Suzi Price and Gretchen Price from the country of Finland.

FROSH LEAVE AUDIENCE STAR STRUCK!!!

Michelle Lounsbury, Cari Nyswonger, Deanna Hatler, Sue Howarth, Laurie Odegard, Bottom Row; Theresa Royston, Ardy Breitmeyer, Tawny Weaver, Marci Folk, Sylvia Ostermeier. The frosh coach was B. Eggers.

A round of applause is earned by the frosh! This year the girls Freshmen Basketball Season overall was one to remember. As the season progressed each and every girl did well in improving their basketball skills. There were outstanding moments in each game, away as well as at home. With much hard work and dedication the entire season was a success to all who played on the frosh team. The girls were 12-0 against all other freshmen league teams.

Laurie Odegard goes for the hoop!!!!

Marci Folk steals the ball from the opponent as Michelle Lounsbury assists.

Coach Peterson, Paula Bergeson, Lisa Weber, Carolyn Maltman, Lisa Corrigan, Bottom Row: Donna Trost, Leslie West, Patti Sturdevant, and Lisa Sparling.

Carolyn Maltman and Donna Trost play heavy defense.

*The J.V. Girls Team Record was: 10 wins and 7 losses
League Standings were: 8 wins and 6 losses.
The season team stats were as follows:*

Turnovers 22.9

Steals 16.8

Rebounds 23.6

Field Goal 34

Freethrow 44

The average amount of points per game were: 37.2%

The opponents were only 34.5%.

Special awards went to Paula Bergeson, Patty Sturdevant, Leslie West, Lisa Weber, and Lisa Sparling.

GIRLS VARSITY SHOOTS FOR THE STARS

Terri Leithner drives toward the basket.

Traci Hamel makes a clean brake.

Jodie Brady hustles down court.

Jennifer Johnson is ready to attack the jump ball as Terri looks on.

The Girls Varsity Record was: 12 wins and 9 losses. The girls made it to the league playoffs but lost to Scappoose in the first round of the playoffs. This put them in fourth place in the league standings. The season was one which was marked by improvement. We played better as a team the last month or so of the season. We reached all of our goals. They were to have a winning season and to make it to the league playoffs. The efforts were made by each girl. 1st Team All League Player: Jennifer Johnson. Honorable Mention All League Kerstin Sadilek.

J.V. / FRESH BASKETBALL

All in all, basketball season went much better this year. The J.V. team had a record of 6 wins and 14 losses, and the freshmen had an excellent record of 18 wins and only 2 losses.

The 1982-1983 basketball season would be described as a season plagued with injuries and illnesses. Although pre-season polls picked the gulls to finish 5th or 6th in the league, the goal was to make the top 4 which would guarantee us a playoff spot. However out of the 20 games scheduled, the gulls could only play 6 games with a full squad. This fact had a major influence in the inconsistent play early in the season. Also the teams confidence was affected because of periodic absences of key personnel. These two facts are critical in winning and were probably the major reason for the loss of some key games late in the season.

IT

This season's Basketball Rally deserves a standing ovation. They were active, involved, and aware.

Each season the squads unite to look-over catalogues and decide on new uniforms. This season's Varsity decided to try a new style. They selected tailored vests with pleated skirts.

Rally's involvement extended to this year's Sno-Ball. They combined efforts with Whitecaps to present an enjoyable evening of music, dance, and refreshments for the students at S.H.S.

When it came to proving support and enthusiasm, this year's rally gave it their ALL!

Charlie Verbrugge places 5th at district.

YOUNG TEAM MEMBERS GAIN MUCH EXPERIENCE

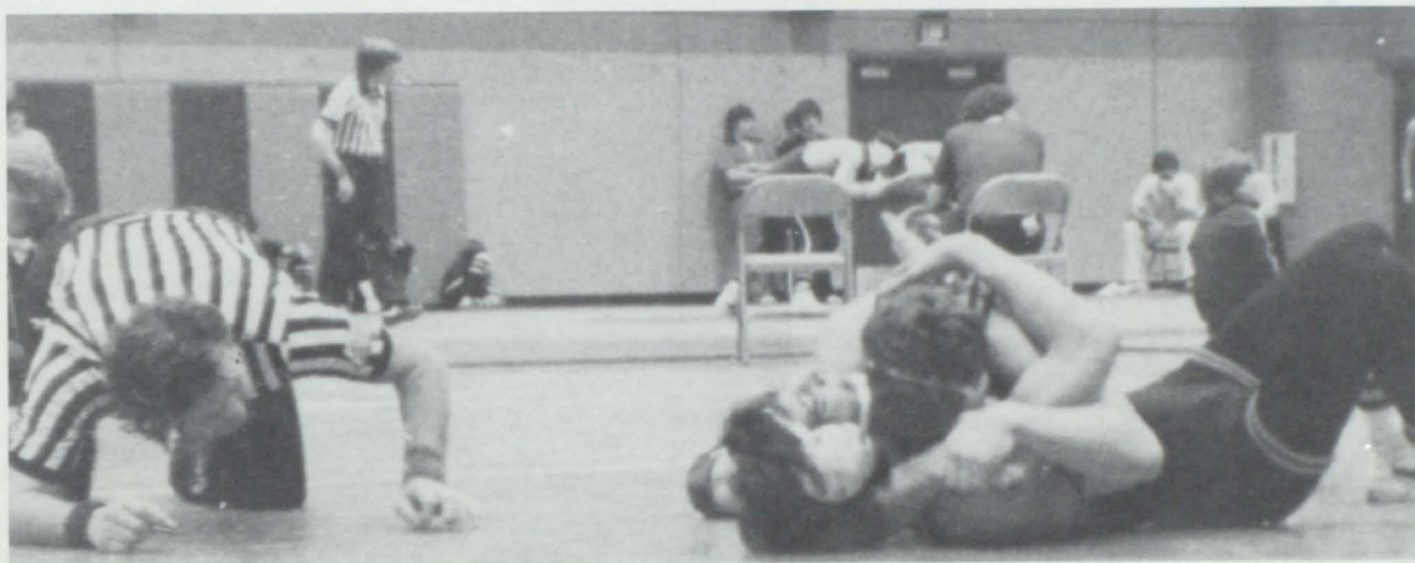

Mike Nyswonger in his starting position.

The season started-out looking good with 34 participants in the program. The Seagulls won four of their first seven matches. Christmas vacation and a devastation loss to Tillamook discouraged some team members which was reduced to 18, mostly first and second year wrestlers.

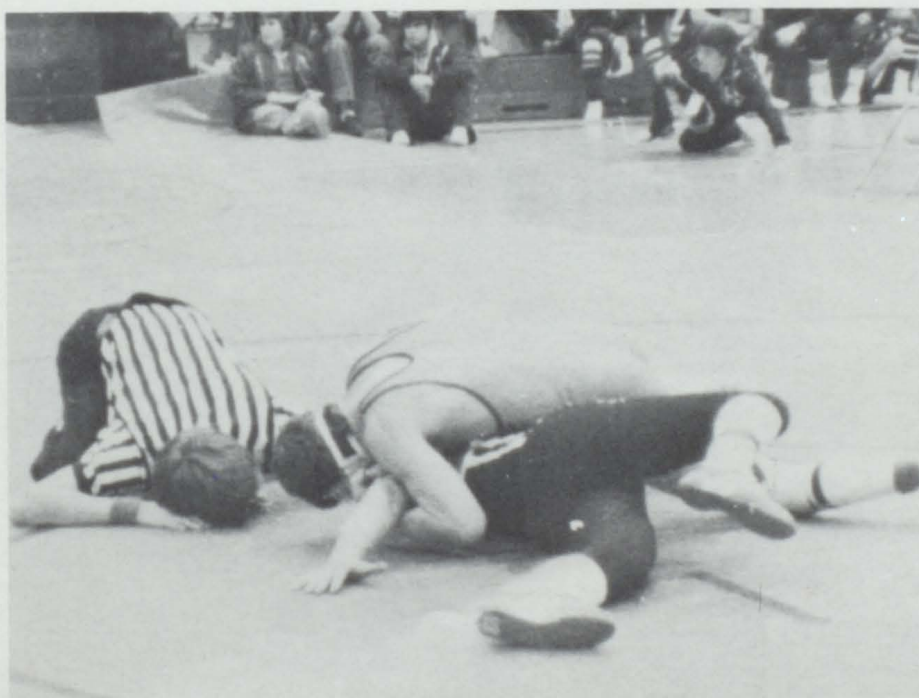

The second half of the season was dedicated to preparing a young group of wrestlers for the following year. The main goal was to have the kids wrestle as many matches as possible in order to obtain mat experience. The highlight of the season came at the district meet, when Chip Stoneman upset Tillamook's Lany Joe Tanner to win the 148 pound championship along with the districts outstanding award.

An overview of the season saw a group of young men and women come together as a community of friends. Despite a dismal mile win-loss record, I enjoyed the season very much. The attitudes and personalities of the members of the 1983 wrestling team made this a special group indeed.

VARSITY SOFTBALL IS A HIT!

The Girls Varsity Softball team for 1982-83 school year consisted of 12 members. Throughout the entire season team members were very supportive of one another, at practices as well as at games. The season seemed to start off slow but quickly picked up when batting averages improved. The overall record was 5 wins and 15 losses, but look out for next year's team because many girls have gained valuable Varsity experience. The softball coach was Carol Stutesman. Included in picture of team are: Bat Boy Ricky Olson, Becky Rutledge, Heather Beghtol, Lori Bergeson, Dawn Perkins, Heidi Olson, Paula Thompson, and Dana Johnson. Top Row: Coach Carol Stutesman, Stacy Allen, Cyndi Kulland, Patty Sorrels, Lisa Sparling, and Stats Girl Laura Sims.

TRACK

BREAKS A LEG

Excellence was the focal point of many hours of hard work, which paid off for both the boys and girls team. The boys team did very well this year not only because of the size and unity the team had, but because of the quality as well. They finished the season with 9 wins and 2 losses in dual meet standings. At districts they tied with Nea-Kah-Nie for 3rd.

As expected the girls did well this year, winning all 11 of their dual meets. They came in first at districts, and were also sent to state to defend their state title. But the girls team came in 3rd.

THE GUILDS

"The Guilds" of the Seaside Seabreeze Theatre Production for Seaside High School are those clubs and organizations which help to promote the well-being of their alma-mater. These groups provide services and activities for their peers and the community. Through these community "guilds" students learn about leadership dynamics, the value of being organized, and share in the profits of being successful.

Because of the school's small enrollment many students are involved in more than one group. Behind every club or organization is the patient advisor without whom a group could not function. Their experience and guidance is an added asset to the groups success. 1. Lisa Weber, Debbie Richards 2. Shelley Stewart, Debbie Cryderman 3. John Wickman, Rod Carow, Mark Bergeson 4. Jazz choir 5. Teija Paananen, Jessica Stoller.

ECOLOGY CLUB MEMBERS MAKE A GOOD SHOWING!

Having two advisors this school year helped provide positive results. The reason was because the club accomplished many goals that were set by club members as well as the advisors. The main features were the Snow shoe trip and the Snowy Plover surveys that were quite a success to individuals who participated. Members included: John Wickman, Steve Wallach, Steve Wilson, Advisor Mr. Paris, Paul Peterson, Scott Erickson, Jeff Campbell, Anita Pilger, Mark Bergeson, Stacy Allen, Rod Carow, Snow shoe instructor, Beth Still, Durrell Kapan, and Windham Kapan. Not Pictured: Gary Anderson, Advisor Mr. Maine.

SKI CLUB MEMBERS PERFORM WELL!

Many Members joined the newly formed Ski Club. Gary Anderson worked very hard with Mr. Ogren to plan ski trips as well as lunch time meetings to inform students of what events were going on. On January 15 the club hit the slopes at Mt. Hood Meadows. Fun times were had by all!! Members that could make the picture were: Lisa Swedenborg, Sam Schreier, Michelle LaCasse, Brian Grant, Lisa Weber, Gary Anderson, Tami Sturdevant, Dana Johnson, And Jenni Green. The Club advisor was Mr. Ogren.

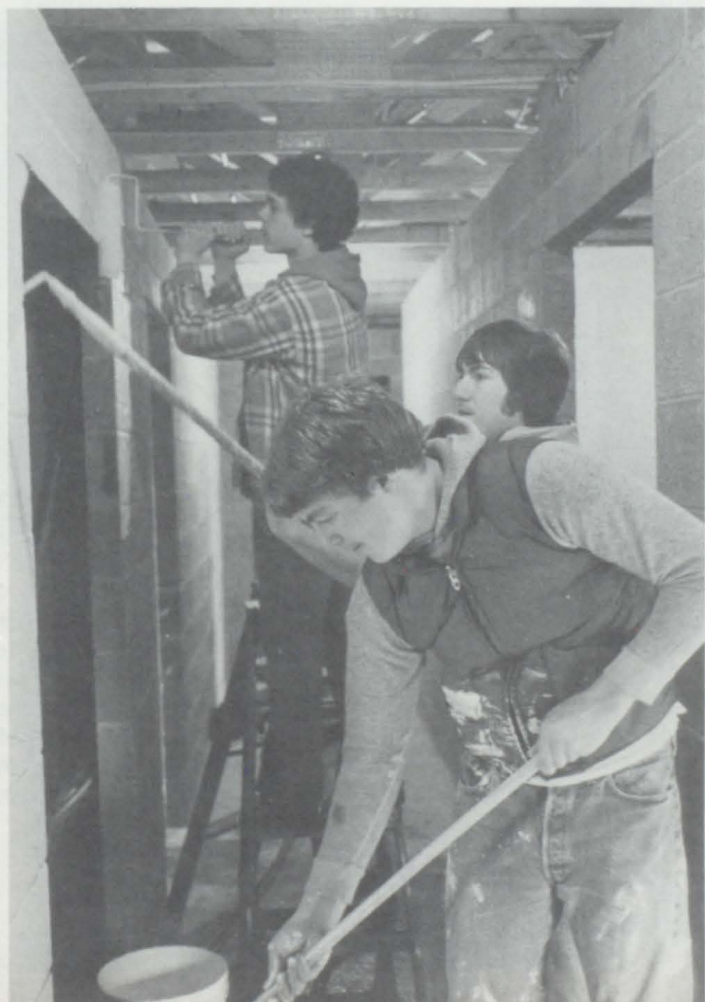

WHITE CAPS PUT ON A GREAT SHOW.

White Caps is a service organization that serves at many community projects throughout the school year. The club served at the Pop's Concert, Kiwana's Pancake Feed, as well as the Rotary Spaghetti Feed. Selling snacks at the football and basketball games helped the club earn money to put on a great Sno-Ball dance. With the help from club members, the rally, and some community members, the school cafeteria was transformed into a winter snowscape. Members included: Jeanine Purcell, Gretchen Price, Jenni Green, Lisa Weber, Patty Sorrels, Kris Beneke, Kristen Anderson, Eileen Reardon, Jennifer Johnson, Mimi Perkins, Shelly Weaver, Lisa Swedenborg, and Holly Trucke. Not pictured was Shellie Starr, Beth Still, Traci Tate, Debbi Richards, Susan Barnes, Andrea Kaul, Jennifer Wysong, Suzi Price.

CENTURIONS CLUB MEMBERS TAKE ACTION!!!

The Service projects for Centurions Club for 1982-83 included: The painting of the new animal haven, the setting up of chairs for many assemblies, the roping off of sections for homecoming events, and many students participated in monthly meetings. The highlight of the year was the hamburger feed that was held at Mr. Haller's house. Club members enjoyed themselves very much!!! Members included: Mr. Haller, Jeanine Purcell, Shannon Little, Devinee Pickell, Susan Barnes, Joanne Eddy, Nancy Holt, Tim Barnes, Todd Bouchard, John Wickman, Tad Abello, Tami Sturdevant, Mike West, Paul Webster, Mitch Ward, Frank Vandyke, Jeanne Taylor, Chad Bergerson, Shelly Weaver, Lisa Vaughn, Kris Beneke, Jodie Brady, Jennifer Johnson, Stacy Allen, Stephanie Morris, and Tim Biamont.

FORENSICS REHEARSE FINAL LINES! DRAMA ACTS THE PART!

Even though the Forensics Club was small in size, the club members who participated at the speech tournaments did a fine showing. There was much memorization work that was done by each person who had competed at the various tournaments. A person could tell that this activity had taken some learning time. Members included: Don Mesplet, Paul Chatalas, Dean Fisher, Advisor Mr. Stacey, Jon Doyle, Mary Bradford, and Jeanine Purcell.

KEY ROLE FOR COMPUTER'S

The computer Club which has been a new addition at Seaside High School has been a success! At the beginning of the school year the club started to build up its membership. Many students who were interested in computers joined and to their liking, learned a great deal about how to effectively use a computer. The club advisor was Mr. Troffiter. Members included: Charles Kelly, Jim Piano, Joseph Kelsay, Frank Furnish, Scott Miller, Paul McLaughlin, Victor Carey, Sylvia Ostermeier, and Perry Reid.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

HONOR SOCIETY JR'S & SENIOR'S

Honor Society's Senior members included: Durrell Kapan, Mike West, Matt Elmes, Jodie Brady, Jeanine Purcell, Elwin Price, Chris Hildebrand, Rae Cryderman, and Heather Beghtol.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS HOSTED BY S.H.S. FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

The Foreign Language Club is made up of French and Spanish-speaking students who were kept busy this year with a number of activities: a Mardi Gras, a Christmas Pinata Party and an after-game dance. The club sold candy bars to raise funds for these events. Welcome additions to the student body were foreign exchange students Tad Abello from the Phillipines and Teija Paananen from Finland. Tad participated in cross country, wrestling and track. Teija was a homecoming princess, and held a role in the winter musical "Guys and Dolls", and was a member of the girls' track team. Both will be remembered long after they return to their homelands. Members include: Anne Powell, Kristin Anderson, Teri Carlson, Chris Osborne, Suzi Price, Shelley Stewart, Lorri Dane, Bobee-Kay Furnish, Lisa Vaughn, Jeanne Taylor, Stephanie Morris, Jeanine Purcell, Holly Trucke, Melody Odegard, Angie Polier, Paula Bergeson, Jennifer Chopping, Michelle LaCasse, Sally Frandsen, Patty Sturdevant, Carolyn Maltman, Donna Trost, Tim Barnes, Gretchen Price and advisor Kaisa Swenddal-White.

PRODUCTION MANAGERS AT S.H.S.

Student Council leads the list being responsible for all projects and activities centered around the student body. Their role is important because they also approve all projects and activities sponsored by various clubs and classes whenever it involves students on campus.

AREA VOCATIONAL CENTER

The Area Vocational Center offers additional opportunities for students from Seaside, Knappa, Astoria and Jewell. Agriculture, Mechanics, Forestry, Horticulture, Electronics, Animal Science, as well as Industrial Electronics are areas that students study.

JAZZ CHOIR ROCKS SEASIDE

It was a building year for this year's jazz choir with only four members returning from last year's group. Nevertheless, they proved to develop into an outstanding ensemble as their performances in the Fall, Winter, and Spring Concerts, as well as the annual S.H.S. Cabaret have shown. They sponsored fund raisers such as the Rock-A-Thon and selling calendars. Next year the group hopes to make enough funds to take another tour and continue their established reputation of jazz excellence.

STANDING OVATION FOR S.H.S. CHOIR

INDIVIDUALITY

*When I am gone
No one will sing the song I sing
The way I sing it now.
For no one can.*

*A better song perhaps,
In a better way.
But still I say
No one will sing the song I sing
Just as I sing today.*

EDITORS BID FAREWELL

To most people, being an editor of a yearbook isn't all that it's cut out to be. It's more than that. No, maybe it's less than that. For the most part, it is not what people think.

A yearbook records the history of the people and events of a year in the life of a school. But, to have only 12 people on a staff representing 400, in charge of recording this history, is one "heck" of a job! Although small in number, we were large in spirit and all dedicated to one goal: to put out the "BEST" yearbook S.H.S. has ever had.

It took a special type of person to put up with the pressures, responsibilities, and criticisms that we dealt out. Joe average on the street would have buckled under, but each person on the staff never gave up. They all freely shared their ideas, compromised, accepted ours, and each others. To all the members of the Seabreeze staff that stuck it through, thank you so so much!

This book would not have been possible without the help of many, many people outside the staff. We're going to run the risk of acknowledging the many helping hands that helped make the book that you are holding now. (This book would not have happened without a few risks.) Hopefully we won't miss anyone.

To Bill Lind, Gary Krohn, Art Chan, and Janice Haner; all professional photographers, thank you so much for meeting our color deadline for the class of "83" senior portraits. Thanks to Mr. "G", Neil Maine, Ed Johnson, Larry Smith, Mr. Stoneman, and JoAnne Brady for snapping photos for us. A special thanks to Bill Wagner of The Daily Astorian, Rusty Bradshaw of the Seaside Signal, and Brian Asher of Josten's Yearbook Co. for your much appreciated contributions to the success of our yearbook. Most of all we would like to thank Becky Dusseau for her outstanding patience and friendship in working with the Seabreeze "82-83" yearbook staff. There are no words strong enough to express our many thanks to all of you.

Despite the numerous headaches, hassles, and hardships, if only one memory is recaptured within these pages, it will have all been worth it.

Thank you,

*Tami Sturdevant

From coast to coast, border to border and beyond, we can keep this country going and growing together.
If we put our minds to it.

CONGRATULATIONS
*to the class of 1983!
